

EURONEXT ANNOUNCES THE DECOMMISSIONING OF EURONEXT SYNAPSE

Euronext Market Data will discontinue the Euronext Synapse market data product, effective 1 August 2019. Reason is the decommissioning of the Euronext Synapse platform on 10 May 2019. Euronext reviewed the bond trading market and fixed-income landscape and determined that the Euronext Synapse platform no longer offers its Members the best opportunity for their liquidity needs. The discontinuation of the Euronext Synapse market data product is reflected in the Order Form, Information Schedule and Information Product Fee Schedule attached to this notification.

For further information in relation to the decommissioning of the Euronext Synapse platform, please contact your relationship manager at ccc@euronext.com or Euronext Fixed Income at +33 (0)1 7048 2408, fixedincome@euronext.com.

NEXT STEPS

If applicable, clients should report any access to and use of Euronext Synapse market data down to zero effective 1 August 2019, on 15 September 2019 at the latest. If you fail to report your access to and use of Euronext Synapse market data down to zero prior to 16 September 2019, Euronext will report it down for you on your behalf.

LEGACY CONTRACTS

The Euronext Market Data Agreement (EMDA) and Euronext Datafeed Subscriber Agreement (EDSA) were introduced 1 September 2017 for new real-time market data clients. Existing clients are migrated onto the new market data licensing agreements in 2018/2019 in different phases. If you are still subject to one of Euronext's old legacy market data licensing agreements, please go to <https://www.euronext.com/en/data/market-data/market-data-agreements> and obtain the updated contractual documents for these agreements. However, please be advised to enter into the EMDA or EDSA as soon as possible.

MORE INFORMATION

For further details and questions about Euronext Market Data, please contact your licensing manager or send an email to databyeuronext@euronext.com.

Kind regards,

Euronext Market Data Team